

CONTENT

Alumni Cocktail & Graduation Celebration: Last Chance to Register!
Webster Professor Biking for Butterfly Children
Webster Team in a Flag-Football Tournament
The Drucker Challenge Essay and Video Contest Are On
Attractive positions in Vienna and beyond Changes in Our Team

Alumni Cocktail & Graduation Celebration: Last Chance to Register!

Let's celebrate with Webster Vienna's new graduates on the night of graduation and welcome them to the Alumni Association, reunite with old friends and colleagues. It will be wonderful to see you all there! Please register your attendance online (this is a charge-free event)

When: Saturday, May 18, 2013 7:30 pm -10:30 pm

Where: Chaya Fuera, Kandlgasse 19-21, 1070 Vienna

Information about tickets to the Afrodisiac after-party that will take place at the same venue after the cocktail can be found on our website.

Webster Professor Biking for Butterfly Children

One of Webster Vienna's Psychology adjunct faculty members, Mag. Klemens Weigl, is raising awareness and funds to promote the work of DEBRA Austria, a foundation designed to help butterfly children. He is doing so through his more than 3,000 kilometer road bike journey from Vienna to Spain. Find out more information about the cause on his website and pictures and travel reports on Facebook.

The Drucker Challenge Essay and Video Contest Are On

Contestants are asked to submit their contributions that will build on Peter Drucker's ideas and management philosophy of putting the human being at the center in a lively format; bringing a fresh infusion of energy and inspiration. The due date is July 1 and the prize at stake for the best authors in both categories is monetary, alongside with free access to the annual Global Peter Drucker Forum. This year's event in Vienna (14-15 Nov) focuses on the theme of Managing Complexity. Visit the website for details.

Webster Team in a Flag-Football Tournament

The Alumni Office is excited to be at the organizers' end for a Webster Team to participate in the Vienna Vikings flag-football tournament. This will be held on Friday, June 7 at 2:00 pm at Hohe Warte Stadium. You say you don't know what a flag-football tournament is? You might like to check out this video then. It is a sports discipline so cheerful-looking that for all we know, it might even replace traditional football in a few years' time! Please contact the Alumni Office by email if you are curious to learn more.

Attractive positions in Vienna and beyond

Business Development Consultants are look for by an experienced and successful international retail consulting agency, to increase the company's international consulting business and support its existing business in Central and Eastern Europe. The full vacancy posting can be viewed online and further details acquired from Mag. Steffen Rother. Citibank is searching for recent Business Administration or Finance graduates who wish to get their careers in the banking industry started. Please find more information online or contact Ms. Jessica Flessa, Webster Vienna's Head of Career Development Mag. Margit Kanka, continues to find and update working opportunities for current students and alumni in Austria. Check them out on our CDC page!

Changes in Our Team

As of May 1, the person preparing this e-newsletter for you is Monika Navratilova. I am very happy to have been offered to take over the Alumni Coordinator and Student Government Liaison's position after Liz Strini-Brown, who has taken the next step in her career. We all wish her the best of luck and lots of positive energy for all new adventures. I am already excited to start our communication, receiving your news of success and of projects that you decide to take on. I really look forward to sharing, to encouraging a community of lively exchange of ideas and support. (I have to apologize for the cliché, but I truly am!)

If you would like to contribute the Webster Alumni eNewsletter please contact Monika Navratilova, Alumni Coordinator and Student Government Liaison at alumni@webster.ac.at, or by phone at +43-1-269 92 93-66. If you want to stay up-to-date with our events and everything else that's happening in the Vienna Alumni Office, "like" our Facebook Page or visit the alumni website.

© 2013 Webster University Alumni Office.
All rights reserved.

Berchtoldgasse 1
1220 Vienna, Austria
T: +43 1 269 92 93 66
F: +43 1 269 92 93 13
E-mail: alumni@webster.ac.at
On-line: www.webster.ac.at/alumni

If you wish to be removed from this group's mailing list, click here